Dear Mrs. Manley:

Your communication of April 15 reached me on April 20th, the day after the meeting at the Black Yankees headquarters. I am sorry I missed it. I am taking the liberty to send you one of my recent columns, which may interest you. And if I am ever in a position to serve the interests which you represent, please feel free to call on me. I have known your husband for some years and have only the highest regards for him.

Yours sincerely,

Edgar T. Rouzeau
